Moreover, reference to the '739 patent is marked on the FUSION heat presses and/or its packaging.

12. The '739 Patent, titled "Heat Seal Machine With Open Throat," was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office on April

14. On information and belief, Defendant has in the past produced, marketed, imported, distributed, sold and/or offered to sell, and currently produce, market, import, distribute, use, sell and/or offer to sell within the United States, including the Eastern District of Michigan, heat transfer presses, including Defendant's Heat Presses, which infringe one or more of the claims of the '739 Patent. A copy of a User Manual for one of Defendant's Heat Presses is attached hereto as Exhibit C, and identifies the Defendant by name as well as providing phone and e-mail contact information for support. Defendant is importing, manufacturing, offering to sell and/or selling in the United States to compete with Stahls' FUSION Heat Press.

COUNT I

Infringement of U.S. Patent No. 8,418,739

15. Stahls' incorporates by reference all allegations of Paragraphs 1-14 as if fully set forth herein.

16. Defendant has infringed, and continue to infringe, directly, contributorily, and/or actively induce infringement of the '739 Patent in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271 by making, using, distributing, offering to sell, selling and/or importing heat transfer presses, including the Defendant's Heat Presses, upon which one or more of the claims of the ‘739 Patent cover, without authority to do so.

17. Defendant is infringing one or more claims of the ‘739 Patent literally, or under the doctrine of equivalents, by making, using, distributing, offering to sell, selling and/or importing the Defendant’s Heat Presses.

18. Stahls’ has been and will continue to be pecuniarily and irreparably damaged by Defendant’s infringement, including diversion of customers, lost sales and lost profits, unless this Court enjoins Defendant from continuing their infringement pursuant to 35 U.S.C § 283.

19. Because Defendant’s actions, on information and belief, were carried out intentionally, willfully and/or deliberately in violation of Stahls’ rights, this is “exceptional case” pursuant to 35 U.S.C § 285 and Stahls’ is entitled to attorney’s fees and costs.

20. Because Defendant’s actions, on information and belief, were carried out intentionally, willfully and/or deliberately in violation of Stahls’ rights, Stahls’ is entitled to an award of treble damages under 35 U.S.C § 284.

REQUESTED RELIEF

- c. Defendant, and those acting in active concert, be preliminarily and permanently enjoined from engaging in any further acts of infringement of United States Patent No. 8,418,739;
- d. Stahls' be awarded damages adequate to compensate for the patent infringement by Defendant pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284, together with prejudgment interest;
- e. Defendant's patent infringement has been willful, thereby entitling Stahls' to recover treble damages, pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284;
- f. The patent infringement by Defendant has been such as to render this action exceptional, and Stahls' be awarded reasonable attorney's fees, pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 285;
- g. Defendant be required to pay Stahls' such damages, statutory or otherwise, together with prejudgment interest thereon, that Stahls' has sustained as a consequence of Defendant's wrongful acts, and to account

- for and return to Stahls' monies, profits and advantages wrongfully gained by Defendant;
- h. All damages sustained by Stahls' be trebled;
 - i. Defendant be required to pay to Stahls' punitive and exemplary damages;
